

2019 Warwick Rodeo and Warwick Gold Cup Campdraft – Media Accreditation Code of Conduct Official Photographer

Media and Photographer Accreditation

The Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc invites media from newspapers, television, radio, photographers, internet and online producers, magazine and industry reporters to apply for Media Accreditation if you wish to attend and cover the 2019 Warwick Campdraft and Rodeo event.

How to apply

Please complete the 2019 Media Accreditation Form and return as detailed on the form. Alternatively you can complete an online application by visiting the Information page on www.warwickshowandrodeo.com.au.

Accreditation Requirements

A letter from your editor/producer on official company letterhead confirming your assignment to cover the 2019 Warwick Campdraft and Rodeo must be submitted with your application. The letter must include the following information:

- The type, extent and focus of the planned coverage
- The primary market, circulation size and target audience of the outlet
- The publication time of the planned coverage
- For online media: Information on publication frequency, average number of daily hits and visitor statistics (unique visitors and page views)
- Current copy of certificate of currency.

The Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc. request our official photographers to provide an agreed selection of photographs taken of the event to the Events Coordinator/Media Liaison on a USB or via a cloud portal throughout the event. The society will then pay for the photographs at the agreed amount within 30 days of the completion of the event. The Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc. also request that approval is sought prior to the use and publication of any images or video footage.

Approval of Accreditation

The Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc. reserve the right to approve or deny any accreditation requests. Completing the registration form does not guarantee you an accreditation pass for the 2019 Warwick Campdraft and Rodeo. We will notify you regarding your application if your application is successful by the 20th of September

Confirmation

When your completed application has been processed and accepted, you will receive confirmation of your accreditation and information on where it will provide you access to. If you have any questions please direct them to the Events Co-ordinator.

Please note: Commercial photography is prohibited unless it has received prior approval and the proper clearances made. Any secondary non-editorial or commercial use of any picture, film is prohibited without prior consent of the Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc.

What does this mean for you?

As one of our Official Photographers, you will be an accredited media representative which demonstrates to competitors, attendees, volunteers and security that you are a member of the media covering the event.

You will receive media information and an official accreditation pass to be collected from the office on arrival at the event. At the start of the event there will be a Media Induction meeting (Date TBA)

Accredited Official media will have access to the following:

1. Event information
2. Competitors and other event personalities for interviews, photographic and filming opportunities
3. Assistance with arranging media requests
4. Entry to specified event venue areas
5. Arena Entry for presentations and official events (Restricted to official photographers at the discretion of the event co-ordinator)
