Warwick Rodeo Queen Quest 2022 Conditions of Entry

1. Entrants in the Warwick Rodeo Queen and Warwick Rodeo Princess sections are required to represent the Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc. at a minimum of 5 functions and attend as many Rodeo Queen Committee meetings as possible (minimum of 2) during their 12 month reign. These functions may also involve domestic travel (Covid-19 pending). The Committee reserves the right to remove any Title and prizes awarded if an entrant fails to provide adequate reasoning for not meeting these requirements.
2. Entry Form, Signed Code of Conduct, and Entry fee are to be submitted to the Warwick Show and Rodeo Office by 3.00pm on Friday 30th September 2022 with the Release and Waiver of Liability to be signed at the compulsory Entrant Meet and Greet on Friday 14th October 2022.
3. Entrants are to be judged in good, casual Western or Australian attire. Judging will be held at the Warwick Showgrounds; all entrants are required to attend an informal meet and greet dinner on Friday night 14th October followed by horsemanship judging and interviews on Saturday 15th October 2022. The newly crowned Queen and Princess also need to be available the Sunday 16th October 2022 for their promotional photoshoot. Entrants will be notified closer to the day of times for each section of judging. All entrants are required to be on site half an hour prior to the commencement of their section. On completion of the horsemanship judging, individual entrants will be interviewed by the judges.
4. All entrants must participate in all areas of the judging to be considered eligible for a Title.
5. Winners will be announced at the Warwick Rodeo Queen Quest Presentation Evening to be held on Saturday night 15th October 2022 at the Douglas Feez Pavilion, Warwick Showgrounds. Tickets will be available at the Warwick Show and Rodeo Office. Fifty percent (50%) of tickets sold by the entrant will go towards that entrant's fundraising total.
6. Entrants may be judged on such topics as general knowledge of Warwick and District, the Warwick Rodeo and Campdraft, Appearance, Personality and Horsemanship. Part of the judging will be on horseback – riding boots must be worn. It is compulsory for entrants under the age of 18 years to wear a helmet whilst mounted at all times. Supporters and interested spectators are more than welcome to view the horsemanship judging.
7. It is encouraged that all title winners are available for the duration Rodeo and Campdraft week from Monday to Sunday for event promotional activities and presentations. Attendance at other events may also be required from Monday to Sunday but this will be advised closer to the date as schedules are collated in the lead up to the event.

8. All entrants are eligible for the title of Overall Fundraiser and are encouraged to compete. The Fundraiser will be solely judged on their Financial Contribution to the Quest. Money raised and number of tickets sold to the Presentation Evening by entrants must be at the Secretarial Office by 3.00pm on Monday 10th October 2022. To be eligible to win any title, Queen Entrants are required to fundraise a minimum of $1,000 and Princess Entrants are required to fundraise a minimum of $250. Monies raised at any fundraising event must be banked into the Societies bank account within three (3) business days after the fundraising has occurred. If your final fundraising event is on the 8th/9th of October, please seek clarification from WRQQ Coordinator. Entrants must consider age appropriate fundraising ie Entrants under 18yrs of age are not to conduct fundraising on licensed premises and/or are not to be sponsored by licensed premises.
9. All entrants must make themselves available to assist with the promotion of the Rodeo and Campdraft, leading up to and during the event. This may include selling raffle tickets, promotional school visits during Rodeo week (if available), attending Competitors' barbecue during Rodeo week, Sponsor's function and the Saturday Street Parade. All entrants will be required for the Grand Entry at the Rodeo on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
10. All entrants must understand that it is their personal responsibility to organise a suitable handler to prepare their horse for any Grand Entries, Presentations and/or Street Parade and that person will take responsibility of the horse following the Grand Entry/Presentations to ensure my availability for other commitments as required.
11. The Quest Committee reserves the right to exclude any horse deemed unsuitable or unsafe for any event, and reserve the right make this decision right up to the moment before horses are required to enter the arena. All efforts will be made to ensure decisions are made with sufficient notice in mind.
12. Entrants understand that the Quest Committee reserves the right to hold onto my telephone whilst I am performing official duties. Phones will be placed into a secure bag held by the RQ Coordinator or WRQQ Committee member whilst the entrant is performing official duties.
13. Entrants understand the Society shall have exclusive rights to all material deemed to be associated with the promotion and advertisement of the Queen Quest, Rodeo and Campdraft and other WSRS associated events. Entrants understand that photographs, videos, interviews and any other promotional content may be reproduced after the event for promotional purposes.
14. All entrants, parents/guardians and family members must execute the Warwick Rodeo Queen Quest Code of Conduct and abide by the Warwick Show & Rodeo Society Inc. Code of Conduct.
15. All entrants, parent/guardians and family members need to be aware, understand and participate in mandatory Queensland Health onsite regulations.

The decision of the Warwick Show and Rodeo Society Inc on all matters pertaining to or incidental to the Warwick Rodeo Queen Quest shall be final, conclusive and binding.
