GUIDELINES FOR EVENTS

INFORMATION FOR THE THOROUGHBRED SPORT HORSE COMPETITOR:

The TSHA's main job is to liaise with show societies to organise thoroughbred classes and to gain sponsorship from the Racing Industry to support these classes with substantial prize money.

To compete in the Thoroughbred Sport Horse Association classes – you must purchase a competition licence with the TSHA through Global Entries Online. The cost of the licence is $55 per year (it goes on the calendar year from the date you pay for your licence, so every horse gets 365 days of value for money).

TSHA conditions for show organisers is that regardless of the amount of prize money on offer – the entry fees are 10% of first prize money and capped at $40 for the 2020/21 financial year.

The licence can be obtained by logging into www.globalentriesonline.com.au and creating an account. You then go to the 'manage horses' page – and click on the button saying "TSHA licence" and fill in the details.

No part bred thoroughbreds or horses who do not appear in the Australian Thoroughbred Stud Book will be eligible to compete in the Thoroughbred Sport Horse Association Classes.

The Licence fee is for competition only – and is not proof of ownership. The licence and the information provided help us track the horses that are competing so that the data can be passed on to the Thoroughbred Industry.

This data will go towards the statistics for rehoming and repurposing racehorses and is a key reason for the industry sponsorship.

The fees collected go towards the costs of running the TSHA, and any left-over funds are channelled back into prize money and rugs/ribbons/trophies

Everyone working for the TSHA does so on a voluntary basis.

To be Eligible for TSHA your thoroughbred must be registered with the Australian Thoroughbred Stud Book.

You must provide a microchip number and the number brands.

If you are having trouble finding the information – please send us an email with the details and photos of the brands and we can help you – thoroughbredsporthorse@gmail.com

The prize money will be paid to the winning rider. Connections of the horse must organise the prize money split, if any, between themselves.

Any horses and riders competing in the TSHA Showjumping Thoroughbred classes 1.05m and over must also hold EA registration
